

Learn Arabic For Free!

Monday/Wednesday evenings from January 28 – April 9, 2008

Beginner Arabic: 6 – 7:30 PM
Intermediate Arabic: 7:30 – 9 PM

GW Hillel: 2300 H Street NW

www.dcinternationals.com - See Calendar for class times

These courses will teach beginning and intermediate Modern Standard Arabic, integrating & developing reading, writing & listening skills, basic vocabulary and verb conjugation.

No prior Arabic exposure is necessary for the Beginning Arabic course;
however, experience with other languages is advantageous.

Intermediate course students should have at least 1 semester of Modern Standard Arabic.

Beginning Arabic students should bring $95 for books to the first class.
Intermediate students should bring $55 for books.

All book purchases are tax free.

Checks preferred (made out to Ross Kaplan); cash accepted.

Ross Kaplan, a Fulbright scholar and foreign affairs officer at the State Department's Near East Affairs Bureau, holds a Masters from the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies. This is the sixth year Mr. Kaplan will teach Arabic at the Hillel.

