Scholarship Guidelines:

To receive this award, you must be pursuing the full-time Global MBA at The George Washington University School of Business. The amount of the award will cover partial to full tuition, as determined by MBA Admissions. Scholarships are merit-based and stipulate the following:

1. The student must be a United States citizen or legal permanent resident.
2. Preference may be given, but is not limited to, students of Hispanic heritage or students with a demonstrated commitment to the Hispanic community.
3. The student must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from either a bachelor’s or master’s degree.

The University reserves the right to solely determine admission criteria for its programs. The University will be responsible for determining the eligibility of each candidate beyond the minimum criteria for evaluating candidates and awarding the scholarship. The scholarship is awarded in various amounts. Those receiving the award will have a strong applicant profile.

How to Apply:

You must submit your scholarship application at the same time you submit your application for the Global MBA program. Submit this sheet and your answers to the following prompts to Shelly Heinrich at shellyh@gwu.edu.

1. In no more than 250 words, please describe your involvement with National Society of Hispanic MBAs or a similar diversity organization that aims to increase the educational or professional opportunities of a diverse population.

2. In no more than 500 words, please describe your definition of diversity and how you believe admitting a diverse MBA class will aid in the learning environment of the GW MBA program.
