Self-Assessment

☐ Schedule a coaching appointment with one of the Fowler Career Center’s under-graduate career coaches to discuss your career interests.

☐ Complete the CareerLeader assessment and discuss the results with your career coach.

Research - Companies/Industries

☐ Develop a list of target industries, positions, and companies that align with your career interests, skills, and professional values.

☐ Use Vault Career Intelligence, Hoover’s Company Records, and other resources to conduct research on industries and companies of interest. Use your target list as a guide, but recognize that you may add or remove options as you learn more.

☐ Conduct informational interviews with GWSB alumni or other professionals working in companies, positions, and industries of interest.

☐ Use job search tools such as GWorkSB and the LinkedIn Student Jobs Portal to identify positions to which you would like to apply.

☐ Attend on-campus recruiting (OCR) events such as career fairs and employer information sessions.

☐ Consider a variety of ways to gain experience and develop marketable skills, such as volunteer opportunities, leadership positions in student organizations, research with a professor, and independent projects.
