ACADEMIC AND LIVING

You are required to certify that you have sufficient funds available for your academic and living expenses throughout the duration of your academic program. The following amounts are estimated costs for 2020-21 only. Tuition, fees, and health insurance expenses can be expected to increase yearly, and tuition and fees are higher for some schools and programs. Additionally, if you plan to attend school in the summer, you must add summer tuition and fees to the total amount certified.

Current detailed information on costs is provided on graduate.admissions.gwu.edu/cost-financial-aid.

Tuition and Fees	$32,904	(minimum tuition and fees for two semesters; actual tuition and fees may vary)
Living Expenses (food, housing, utilities)	20,850	(twelve months)
Books and Supplies	500	(nine-month academic year)
Health Insurance	2,690	(twelve months)
Total	$56,944

Your program cost is different.
See the note below under Source of Funds

Family Expenses If you are married and plan to bring your spouse and/or child year for your spouse and $5,394 per year for each child.

See Academic and Living Cost on website for your programs' funding requirement

SOURCE OF FUNDS

On the chart below, indicate the source(s) of funds that will be available to cover your academic and living expenses. The appropriate blocks be completed for the estimated length of your academic program: at least two years for a master's program and four to five years for a doctoral program.

VISA REQUEST

Note: if you have several sponsors, you can print out this 2nd page for each sponsor to fill out and sign

REQUIREMENTS FOR FUNDING INFORMATION

Financial Documents: Students who do not have government/agency sponsorship or GW funding must provide bank statements that show the following (self-support & family/individual sponsorship):

- a. Be on official bank letter head and signed/stamped/sealed by the bank
- b. Be in English
- c. State the account holder's name
- d. Have the account number
- e. Show type of account, must be either a savings, checking or other liquid source bank account
- f. Have exact amount (no vague language)
- g. Indicate the currency
- h. Be no more than 1 year old

Source of funding

Self-support: Students who show bank documents in their name

Self-supporting students' financial documents should amount to the full cost of the program for at least two years. Any self-support (i.e. even if combined with other sources of funding) should present financial documents amounting to the full cost and full length of the program.

Family/Individual sponsor: Students who bank documents in the name of their family members or other individuals

Students funded by family/individual sponsor as their only source of funding then financial documents should amount at least for one year of the cost of the program. The sponsor must then fill out the bottom of page 2 and sign the document. If there are multiple sponsors, they must list each name on this form, or have each sponsor fill-out separate page 2 forms. Be sure that the name(s) match the accompanying financial documents

GW: Students who show financial support letter given by GWU

Any funding coming from GW must be listed; we only accept official letters on GW letter head that specify the amounts and duration. GMBA students receive GWSB funding; the amounts are stated in their admission letter.

Government/Agency Sponsor: Students who show financial support letter given by government or any other agency sponsor

If a student opts for this source of funding as their ONLY source the sponsor must provide a sponsorship letter that has the following:

- Must be on company/agency/government official letterhead
- Student's name
- GWSB & degree program
- Start and end dates of the sponsorship
- If no exact amount is listed, it must state it covers all tuition costs & fees, Living expenses, books and supplies, and living expenses. (If student has dependents, the letter must also state that it covers all dependent living expenses and health insurance costs)
