Policies

- Deferred admission may only be granted to admitted students for one of the two semesters immediately following the original semester of admission.
- Deferred students may not enroll in another college or university. A deferred student who enrolls in another institution during the deferral period will forfeit the deferred admission status and the non-refundable tuition deposit.
- Students must submit the required non-refundable tuition deposit to be eligible for deferral.

Financial Aid

Deferred students who have applied for financial aid must complete and submit a new FAFSA and related documents for the semester they begin the program. Students who were awarded scholarships may be required to forfeit their scholarships.
